WEEK 3 GOLF LEAGUE NOTES

The theme for last week apparently was "revenge of the sandbaggers", as both our beloved baggers of sand finished 1st and 2nd net and tied for lowest scratch! Steve obviously went off the 'roids after the threat of a urine test last week as he scored back to his normal self. I continued to be strictly a good scramble player, as only 1 of 3 shots made were good. Please remember this week (week 4) most golfers will be dropping a score for their average calculation, as needed to counteract the rampant sandbagging.

Hopefully the weather clears up a bit, because I'm sick of rain and am not too fond of playing in the cold either. Please remember to check back to TriVClub.com for updated score sheets or notifications regarding canceled play. I'm working to improve the site with text and email message updates whenever a new post is made. Eventually, the site could be used for other TriV functions besides golf.

Thanks and good luck this week!

- Your committee, Dave Burke & Jay Trachsel
