WEEK 13 GOLF LEAGUE NOTES

The points feeding frenzy known as Trachsel vacation is over, and I was able to muster up the minimum 1 point required to take the 2nd half. That means I'll be facing off against Mike Trachsel this week for the season championship. I hope everyone had fun this season and if not, take it up with Jay! Seriously though, if anyone has any suggestions on how to improve our league, please let us know as we're open to new ideas.

On a personal note, my wife gave birth to our first child, a baby boy, on Thursday, August 11th. His name is Matthew and he weighed in at 9lbs 5oz and was 23" long. Luckily he timed his birth perfectly enough so that I could golf without missing a week! Good job Matthew!

Thanks, and good luck this week (except Mike)!

- Your committee, Dave Burke & Jay Trachsel
