WEEK 2 GOLF LEAGUE NOTES

The score sheets are finally up to date for the new season. There were some errors regarding averages since the sheet was not updated and 100% hdcp had not yet been applied. Please double check the scores and notify me if there are any issues or questions.

Jeff continued to take advantage of his pathetic season last year (sandbagger) by winning another 5 points. Yes, I did check his last year's average several times and its correct. In case you wanted to know, he golfed 6 times last year and scored 50, 49, 46, 43, 47 & 49 for a starting year average of 46.8. So far this year he's scored a 42 and a 40.

Good luck and see you on the course!

Your committee,

Jay Trachsel & David Burke
