WEEK 7 GOLF LEAGUE NOTES

Today is week 8 and is the first week of the 2nd half. Its like a fresh new season; all your bad golfing has been erased, and you can take the chance to win it again... or just keep golfing like crap, your choice.

We had a tight race to close out the first half between Bill and Jeff, but Bill was able to maintain and extend his slight lead to secure his position in the finals at the end of the year. Jeff needed a two stroke win, but came up three strokes short as handicaps were a factor. However regardless of handicaps, Bill won the match straight up by one stroke. Consistency finally paid off as Bill's scoring standard deviation was by far the lowest, enabling him to slowly chip away and finally overtake Jeff's commanding lead.

Congratulations Bill, and good luck to everyone this 2nd half!

Good luck and see you on the course!
