WEEK 8 GOLF LEAGUE NOTES

sand-bag (sndbg)

n.

A bag filled with sand and used as ballast, in the formation of protective walls, or as a weapon.

v.intr. Slang

To downplay or misrepresent one's ability in order to deceive someone, especially in gambling.

I think I'm looking for the second definition... Let me introduce you Mike Trachsel. Nice round Mike, but let me give you some advice. Besides sudden, unexpected, and miraculously improved play, what's the #1 tell-tale sign of a sandbagger? The guy who walks into the "19th hole" and starts defending himself from sandbagging immediately before even announcing his score. The second sign is shooting 7 below your average. At least you didn't dedicate an entire season to playing like crap so you could dominate everyone only to blow it at the end. Hmmm..... Just kidding Mike (and Jeff), nice round.

The only serious news for this week is Bill, Jay, and Steve dropped a score last week with Jeff to follow the next time he golfs.

Good luck and see you on the course!
