WEEK 11 GOLF LEAGUE NOTES

Wow, week 11 (week 4 of 2nd half) had some pretty low scores! Every "in the money" player shot either their lowest score, tied for lowest score, or second lowest score of the season. Ultimately, Mike took another 6 points with his season best (and one stroke short of tying a personal best) score of 34. Great round Mike! However, he'll have a more difficult time holding on to his lead as his handicap continues to drop, now standing at 4.2. I think we'll have a fun home stretch to the 2nd half!

After re-adding the scores, I mistakenly told Bill he shot a 38 when actually he shot a 40. Still a great round, but it dropped him 2 places in the ranks this week, meaning Steve and I moved up one spot. Sorry Bill! I'm sure no big deal as you await your 2nd half winning opponent.

Finally, there was some talk of having a Saturday "Trachsel Vacation" special golf day since all but 2 "in the money" players will be absent on Monday the 23rd. I think this is a fair condition considering the vast majority of the league will miss and we have always allowed people to make up time if they know they will miss. We will discuss and decide next week.

Good luck and see you on the course!
