WEEK 10 GOLF LEAGUE NOTES

Wow the weather is heating up, and so has everyone's golfing. This week's league average plummeted to 44.4, almost 3 strokes below the season average of 47.1, which continues a downward trend over the last 3 weeks. I guess we're better in warm weather, or maybe just getting more practice helps. I was able to get out of a season long slump in a big way, which was needed to get myself back into the realm of respectability.

Finally, the last four golfers to play their 8th round of the year have dropped a 2nd score. With that, all prize money golfers have dropped 2 scores.

Good luck, and see you on the course!
- Your committee: Dave Burke & Jay Trachsel
