WEEK 4 GOLF LEAGUE NOTES

The main item of interest this week is regarding how to structure the flights/points this season. With the amount of golfers out and others not exactly committed to the 2nd half, we have 10 golfers playing for points this year. It sounds like we might add 2 more for the 2nd half, but again no firm commitments. Jay and I have discussed, but I think I'd like to get the league's opinion about 2 options:

OPTION 1: 1 flight and top 6 places get points weekly. This option is shown above in the current sheet.

OPTION 1a: Same as option 1, but there are 2 winners to each half so we have 4 playing for the championship.

OPTION 2: 2 flights and top 4 places get points weekly. This option is shown in the table at lower right. Each golfer is shown in order of their current average, which is how the flights were decided. Each persons hypothetical points are shown as well.

Please let me know your preference before next week as I will be finalizing the scoring system at that time.
