WEEK 1 GOLF LEAGUE NOTES

Welcome back to Tri-V Golf, 2017! As usual we managed to narrowly avoid bad weather, with the exception of one hole. The weather is looking great for next week (in this case tomorrow), so hopefully we'll have a full crowd.

It looks like almost everyone is shaking off the rust or adapting to the challenges of Hickory Hills, as there were only two scores under average from last year. Nate was the big low net winner, scoring about two over average. The lone birdie of the day was shot on #9 by me (no big deal). At least I was able to get a skin for my effort. The other four skins were won just by shooting par.

As usual, points may or may not change from the first few weeks depending on who decides to get in the money or not. If you are going to participate in the money, please pay Jay $30 per half or let him know you're out. We need everyone paid for at least the first half by week 3.

- Your committee: Dave Burke & Jay Trachsel
