WEEK 17 GOLF LEAGUE NOTES

This week was the final week for Tri-V Golf, 2017. The playoffs were between Brian, Lew, Nate, and me. Nate struggled this week, and was never in contention after the early holes. Brian held the lead early and was within striking distance until two double bogeys on 8 & 9 finished him off. Lew and I were neck and neck until I was able to pick up 1 stroke on 7 & 8. Going into the 9th hole I was up 2 strokes and did my best to blow the lead. My drive was wayward to the left, then I hit a tree, then I almost hit out of bounds. Luckily a nice chip put me within striking distance of par, which I did not get. Meanwhile Lew was on in regulation and came within 1/2 inch of making the putt for birdie and forcing sudden death. What a close match!

Thanks everyone for a great season and great playoff! I hope to see you all at final golf this weekend! As always, please let Jay or me know if you have any suggestions for improving the league next year.
